The Interest of the Benefactions marked thus*, was appropriated to the Payment of the Secretary's Salary; that with this mark †, for an help towards the maintenance of an Essex Clergyman's Child or Orphan at the University, and to be accumulated when there is no such Petitioner; and that with this mark §, to defray the expences of the dinner at the Brentwood Court, agreeably to the exprefs desire of the donor, and not to make a part of the general account.

At a General Court of the Governors of this Charity, held at Dunmow, in 1792, the following Rules were proposed, and the same were confirmed at the Court of Audit, holden at Chelmsford, in 1793.

First, That the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen not having an income of 20l. a year may petition and receive relief from this Charity.
Secondly, In order to ascertain the proper proportion of relief to each object, that in all future petitions it shall be specified what particular annual income each object is possessed of.

N. B. Any one that is inclined to contribute to this Charity by Will, may do it in the following Words:
Also, I give unto the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Clergymen, Beneficed, or having Curacies, and their Widows and Children, in the County of Essex, Deanry of Braugbing, and Archdeaconry of St. Alban's, in the County of Hertford, within the Diocese of London, the Sum of Pounds, to be paid by my Executors, within Months after my Decease, to one of the Treasurers or Stewards of the said Charity, and to be applied for the general Purposes thereof; [or for any particular Purpose the Testator chooseth.]
